TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Clifton Street. This is one of the principal streets in the town and is named after the Clifton family, whose handsome seat, Lytham Hall, adjoins the town on the north. In 1554 the domains of Lytham were granted to Sir Thomas Holcroft, who in 1606 sold the property to Sir Cuthbert Clifton, of Westby, and this family have held the manor since Charles I.'s reign. Electric trams ply to and from Clifton Street, and there are some good shops.
